Traffic report for FlyMe June 2006 – 93 percents increase compared to last year

The number of passengers continue to go up. The total number of passengers have increased by no less than 93 percent compared to same time last year.

FlyMe's CEO, Fredrik Skanselid, comments:

- Our domestic traffic is continuously high despite the ongoing holiday season, which will help to create a platform for this autumn's traffic. In the beginning of the holiday season, the international traffic shows increasing figures, as expected, with a load factor of 63,4 percent.
